

The East Tennessee Region of the Antique Automobile Club of America (ETR-AACA) welcomes your interest in the club and hopes you share our love of automotive history and antique cars!

The AACA is the nation's oldest and largest automotive historical society dedicated to the preservation of automobiles and automotive history. ETR-AACA is one of more than 350 regions and chapters of AACA which sponsor local activities for members almost every month.

With your memberships in AACA and ETR-AACA you get:

- ✓ Antique Automobile – an award-winning national magazine.
- ✓ Smoky Mountain Antiquer – our local e-newsletter published by ETR-AACA.
- ✓ Access to the AACA Library & Research Center, and free admission to the AACA Museum in Hershey, Pennsylvania.
- ✓ Eligibility to attend national meets, tours, and judging schools.
- ✓ Invitations to monthly tours and events hosted by ETR-AACA.

Annual memberships in AACA and ETR-AACA are open to all individuals who have an interest in the antique automobile hobby. Ownership of an antique automobile is not a requirement of membership.

For more information or membership applications, visit www.aaca.org or www.etr.aaca.com.

www.etr.aaca.com